

News

Many of our engagements involve matters in which our clients face significant public attention. The following is a list of news stories about the firm, our clients, cases and the results we have achieved.

Carolina Leung and Martin De Luca to join Webinar Series on Brazil-U.S. Anti-Corruption

January 28, 2021

Join Kobre & Kim's Carolina Leung and Martin De Luca at the "Brazil-U.S. Dialogues and Debates: Advances and Anti-Corruption Challenges" webinar series hosted by Barbosa, Müssnich & Aragão Advogados.

The "Dialogues and Debates" webinar series facilitates dialogue between legal professionals around anti-corruption issues facing Brazil and the U.S. The panels will discuss cross-border perspectives and developments in the field of anti-corruption affecting both countries.

Ms. Leung will moderate a panel on Brazil-U.S. anti-corruption cooperation on Friday, January 29, 2021, and Mr. De Luca will join a panel to discuss the use of new technologies in offensive investigations on Tuesday, February 2, 2021.

Click here to register for Ms. Leung's panel on Brazil-U.S. anti-corruption cooperation.

Click here to register for Mr. De Luca's panel on new technologies in money laundering investigations.