

News

Many of our engagements involve matters in which our clients face significant public attention. The following is a list of news stories about the firm, our clients, cases and the results we have achieved.

Daniel Lee Explores Cross-Border Internal Investigations in Korea

November 8, 2018

Daniel Lee will review what international companies should consider when conducting cross-border investigations in Korea at the Asian Legal Business Korea In-House Legal Summit on November 8. The panel titled “Understanding and Managing Cross-Border Internal Investigations in Korea” will examine recent trends in international internal investigations, varying attorney-client privilege laws, and steps companies can take to ensure appropriate legal support and strategy.