

News

Many of our engagements involve matters in which our clients face significant public attention. The following is a list of news stories about the firm, our clients, cases and the results we have achieved.

Daniel Saval Explores Cross-Border Insolvency Proceedings for Private Clients at ABA International Law Section Annual Conference

April 30, 2024

When ultra-high-net-worth individuals encounter financial distress, a cross-border insolvency strategy may be necessary to account for the impacts on their assets across different jurisdictions. Kobre & Kim's Daniel Saval, who focuses on cross-border insolvency strategies, joins the American Bar Association International Law Section Annual Conference in Washington, DC to discuss these issues on a panel at 4:30 pm local time, May 8, 2024.

The panel, "When Fame is Not Enough: Insolvency Proceedings for Private Clients - a Comparison of Proceedings and Consequences from a Multijurisdictional Perspective," looks at the actions necessary for private clients to seek relief when facing economic downturn in different jurisdictions. The discussion will compare the criteria needed to be met for personal insolvency proceedings and the ranking of creditors, as well as how creditors can protect their interests and how proceedings affect assets outside the insolvency court's jurisdiction.

Joining Mr. Saval are moderator Wenceslao Gracia of Gracia Carabantes Abogados; Luigi Pavanello of Pllc Legal; Linda Garcia de Alba of De Castillo-Castro; Oliver Jackson of DMH Stallard LLP; and Donghao (Helen) Yan of Dechert.

Click here to register.