

News

Many of our engagements involve matters in which our clients face significant public attention. The following is a list of news stories about the firm, our clients, cases and the results we have achieved.

Daniel Saval on Trusts and Insolvency in IWIRC-Mexico Panel

July 29, 2024

Kobre & Kim's Daniel Saval joins experts from Colombia, Italy and Mexico to explore the effects and implications of trusts in insolvency scenarios, in an International Women's Insolvency & Restructuring Confederation – Mexico panel on Zoom at 10:00 am ET, July 31 2024.

The panel, "Trusts and Insolvency: Conversations on Experiences in 4 Jurisdictions" will examine how trusts operate in each of these four countries, with a focus on the varying systems of regulation, the impact of insolvency on trust structures, and strategies for investors (including high net worth individuals) who use trusts to protect their assets.

The International Women's Insolvency & Restructuring Confederation is an organization committed to connection, promotion, and success of women in the insolvency and restructuring professions worldwide.

Joining Mr. Saval are moderator Patricia Cervantes of Guerra, Hidalgo y Mendoza; Linda Garcia de Alba of Del Castillo-Castro; Luigi Pavanello of PLLC Legal; and Susana Hidvegi of Riveron.

Click here to register.