

News

Many of our engagements involve matters in which our clients face significant public attention. The following is a list of news stories about the firm, our clients, cases and the results we have achieved.

Donna Xu Shares How to Start a Career in Bankruptcy in New York City Bar Webinar

August 4, 2021

The economic impact of the pandemic will likely lead to an uptick in bankruptcy filings and restructurings around the world, and attorneys with experience in the field will be in high demand. Kobre & Kim's Donna Xu, who focuses on cross-border insolvency disputes, will discuss her career in bankruptcy and share how others can break into the field in a New York City Bar webinar at 6:00 pm New York time on August 5, 2021.

The session, "Careers in Bankruptcy & Restructuring," is part of the City Bar Summer Series and will be moderated by David Schwartz of Cleary Gottlieb Steen & Hamilton LLP. Ms. Xu will also be joined by Judah Gross of Fitch Ratings and Amy Oden of Togut, Segal & Segal LLP.

Click here to learn more.