

News

Many of our engagements involve matters in which our clients face significant public attention. The following is a list of news stories about the firm, our clients, cases and the results we have achieved.

Emily Beirne on Building the Law Firm of the Future at IBA Middle East Conference

February 28, 2024

What can law firms do to stay one step ahead? Kobre & Kim's Dubai-based Emily Beirne discussed at the International Bar Association Middle East Conference on "Law Firms and Clients Working Together" during a panel on February 28, 2024.

The panel, "How to develop the law firm of the future," examined how senior management of law firms need to raise their attention from the day-to-day routine and towards the future to ensure their law firms are sustainable.

Joining Ms. Beirne were panel moderator Jan Derneham of Mannheimer Swartling, and panelists Mahmoud (Mac) Fadlallah of Akin Gump Strauss Hauer & Feld; Mahmood Hussain of Mahmood Hussain Advocates; Stephen Revell of Making Change Happen; Philip Ireland of Maples; and Paul Marmor of Sherrards.

Click here to learn more about the conference.