

News

Many of our engagements involve matters in which our clients face significant public attention. The following is a list of news stories about the firm, our clients, cases and the results we have achieved.

Emily Beirne Joins Panel Discussion Hosted by DRD Partnership at Nairobi Arbitration Week

March 17, 2025

In today's increasingly complex global landscape, effectively managing cross-border disputes requires a holistic approach that goes beyond legal strategy. From mitigating reputational risks to understanding the geopolitical dynamics that impact enforcement efforts, this panel will offer valuable insights for those involved in high-stakes disputes.

Kobre & Kim's Emily Beirne will be speaking at Nairobi Arbitration Week on a thought-provoking panel discussing the many strategic considerations that come into play in international arbitration and enforcement, including reputational, commercial, and geopolitical factors.

Hosted by DRD Partnership, the panel will also feature Claire Davidson, Oliver Stern, and Nikita Bernardi.

Click here for more information about the event.