

Many of our engagements involve matters in which our clients face significant public attention. The following is a list of news stories about the firm, our clients, cases and the results we have achieved.

Evelyn Baltodano Sheehan and Carolina Leung Shared Insights on Legal and Reputational Risks Impacting Cross-Border Wealth at São Paulo Event

August 15, 2025

On August 14, 2025, Kobre & Kim and Cone Marshall co-hosted an event in São Paulo titled Navigating Global Legal and Reputational Risks: How to Structure, Protect, and Preserve Wealth.

Kobre & Kim's Evelyn Baltodano Sheehan and Carolina Leung joined Ignacio Aberastain Diz and Gabriela Cardoso Abbud of Cone Marshall to examine the legal disputes, enforcement risks, and jurisdictional challenges that can arise when assets and family wealth span multiple countries. The discussion covered the impact of political instability and capital flight, partnership and joint-venture disputes involving foreign counterparties amid the rise of private credit .

The panel also explored cross-border succession and governance disputes and shared practical insights for professionals, family offices, and advisors navigating complex, high-stakes situations in an increasingly volatile global environment.

KOBRE & KIM

KOBRE & KIM

