

News

Many of our engagements involve matters in which our clients face significant public attention. The following is a list of news stories about the firm, our clients, cases and the results we have achieved.

Evelyn Sheehan to Lead IFG Panel on Family Governance Litigation & Dispute Resolution

December 1, 2021

Kobre & Kim's Evelyn Baltodano-Sheehan, who formulates offensive and defensive global litigation strategies for high-net-worth international private clients involved in high-stakes, cross-border disputes, will join the 2021 Miami Conference hosted by the Institute of Family Governance to discuss developments in family governance disputes across Miami and the Latin American regions.

The discussion, "Family Governance Litigation & Dispute Resolution in the Region – What Worked and Why," takes place in Miami at 11:40 am local time on Wednesday, December 1. Ms. Sheehan will be joined by Pedro Serrano Espelta; Clarissa Oliveira of Chinaglia Oliveira Advogados; George Perlman of George D. Perlman, P.A.; and Juan C. Antúnez of Stokes McMillan Antúnez Martínez-Lejarza P.A.

For more on the conference, including registration, please click here.