

News

Many of our engagements involve matters in which our clients face significant public attention. The following is a list of news stories about the firm, our clients, cases and the results we have achieved.

Facing Government Enforcement in Multiple Jurisdictions? William McGovern Tackles the Stages of Cross-Border Investigations in Asia

March 21, 2017

William McGovern will discuss government enforcement in multiple jurisdictions March 24 at the Cambridge Forums' Global Forum on Corporate Criminal Liability in Cascais, Portugal. The presentation, titled "Dealing With The Rise Of Overseas Prosecutors: Counseling Senior Executives Facing Criminal Exposure In Multiple Jurisdictions," will review interviews at various stages in cross-border investigations and why it is important to consider local authorities' tactics to minimize risks and ensure a fair process.

More information on this seminar can be found here.