

News

Many of our engagements involve matters in which our clients face significant public attention. The following is a list of news stories about the firm, our clients, cases and the results we have achieved.

Farrington Yates Discusses Forum Shopping Issues in Fraud and Insolvency

June 3, 2019

In what circumstances do courts accept jurisdiction in a cross-border insolvency case, and what factors affect their decision? On June 3rd, Kobre & Kim's Farrington Yates will join a panel entitled "Forum Shopping" at KNect's Asset Recovery Latin America conference in São Paulo. Mr. Yates will use his background in litigating complex, cross-border cases involving fraud, misconduct and asset concealment to discuss tools and techniques for asset recovery that can be deployed in multiple jurisdictions, as well as what analyses underlie the choice of forum.