Former U.S. DOJ Prosecutor Vasu Muthyala Explores Effect of Global Anti-Corruption Trends on Businesses in India

March 21, 2017

Former U.S. Department of Justice prosecutor Vasu Muthyala discussed how global anti-corruption enforcement trends affect multinational corporations in India during a live webinar hosted by the U.S.-India Business Council on March 21. The webinar, titled “Economic Crimes in India and the Associated Investor Challenges — Corruption to Fraud,” examined the anti-corruption law landscape, including recent U.S. Foreign Corrupt Practices Act (FCPA) settlements relating to conduct in India and third-party risk mitigation.
