

News

Many of our engagements involve matters in which our clients face significant public attention. The following is a list of news stories about the firm, our clients, cases and the results we have achieved.

Jalil Asif KC and William McGovern Explore Wealth Structuring at STEP Cayman 2019

January 29, 2019

Kobre & Kim attorneys Jalil Asif KC and William McGovern will explore international wealth structuring and cross-border litigation at STEP Cayman's 2019 International Wealth Structuring Forum.

Offshore lawyer Jalil Asif KC will demonstrate practical application of wealth structuring topics in a mock trial exercise on January 31. Serving as the mock judge, Jalil will work with fellow industry experts to highlight themes of the day including: family disputes; international financial centers; and international trust law.

On February 1 William McGovern, who has extensive experience in cross-border government enforcement, will join the panel "Whither Privilege? – Attorney client confidentiality in the Cayman Islands, the USA, and the UK," which will evaluate the state of attorney-client confidentiality in cross-border investigations involving offshore jurisdictions. The panel will discuss recent court decisions and the risks weakened privilege create for stakeholders.