

News

Many of our engagements involve matters in which our clients face significant public attention. The following is a list of news stories about the firm, our clients, cases and the results we have achieved.

Jason Kang Shares Insights on Global Impacts of Chinese Real Estate Distressed Debt at AABANY Conference

October 4, 2022

As China's real estate industry continues to show signs of distress, offshore investors are likely to see rising risks as well as rising opportunities. Kobre & Kim's Shanghai-based Jason Kang, who focuses on complex China-related multijurisdictional disputes, explains during the Asian American Bar Association of New York (AABANY) Fall Conference 2022 on a panel at 9:00 am New York time, October 8, 2022.

The panel, "Distress in the Chinese Real Estate Market and Its Global Implications," provides insights on China's real estate distressed debt issues and its global impact from both legal and financial perspectives, and shares practical recommendations on possible solutions for associated cross-border investments. Joining Mr. Kang are Jingzhi Dai of Jefferies LLC, Yanhua Lin of Fangda Partners, Anthony Grossi of Sidley Austin and Mike Paek of the Southern District of New York Bankruptcy Court. The panel will be moderated by Alex Xiao of Gibson Dunn.

Click here for more details.