Jason Masimore Focuses on Internal Investigation Life Cycle at Anti-Corruption Conference in Spain

October 19, 2016

Former U.S. Department of Justice (DOJ) prosecutor and London-based lawyer Jason Masimore addressed how to begin and conduct internal investigations, including the investigative process and how to report findings to stakeholders and/or regulators, at the C5 anti-corruption conference in Spain. Mr. Masimore's presentation, "Focus on Internal Investigations: Planning for, Managing Data Constraints, Remediation and Disclosure," delved into what triggers an investigation, leveraging technology and data analytics, and knowing when the investigation has been exhausted.
