

News

Many of our engagements involve matters in which our clients face significant public attention. The following is a list of news stories about the firm, our clients, cases and the results we have achieved.

Jef Klazen Examines Enforceability at the Forum on International Enforcement of Judgments & Awards

June 9, 2017

Jef Klazen will review the factors affecting the enforceability of a judgment or award, and how those factors help determine the risk-adjusted value June 12 at the Cambridge Forum on International Enforcement of Judgments & Awards.

The panel, titled "Preliminary Assessment of Enforceability," will focus on contractual dispute-resolution provisions, the differences between enforcement of judgments and arbitration awards, the impact on worldwide enforcement, and how asset locations can guide your overall strategy.