

News

Many of our engagements involve matters in which our clients face significant public attention. The following is a list of news stories about the firm, our clients, cases and the results we have achieved.

Jef Klazen Discussed Navigating Corporate Scandals at the Annual Conference of the International Bar Association

September 20, 2016

Global corporations are increasingly facing scandals that require the assistance of legal counsel with backgrounds in both criminal and commercial litigation. Jef Klazen, a Kobre & Kim lawyer with extensive litigation experience, spoke September 20 at the International Bar Association Annual Conference at the Washington Marriott Wardman Park. Mr. Klazen explored how business leaders and general counsel can successfully maneuver companies through a crisis with potential criminal and civil inquiries.

To read more about the IBA conference, click here.