

News

Many of our engagements involve matters in which our clients face significant public attention. The following is a list of news stories about the firm, our clients, cases and the results we have achieved.

Jeremy Hollembeak Addresses Developments in Cross-Border Insolvency at RISA South Square Conference

November 22, 2016

Bankruptcy lawyer Jeremy Hollembeak explored current issues in offshore cross-border insolvency matters, including how to develop global asset recovery strategies and the various tools available under U.S. law, on the panel titled, “Developments of common law of cross-border insolvency outside the EU framework – how Cayman could benefit.” The panelists discussed a hypothetical case study to explore a number of current issues including international judgment enforcement, global asset recovery strategies, public bonds, and local laws in various jurisdictions.

More information about the conference can be viewed here.