Jian Wu Moderates ABA China Committee Panel on Legal and Compliance Challenges of Cross-Border Trade

September 20, 2021

Parties engaging in cross-border trade and transactions will have to navigate a complex web of varying laws and regulations, as well as other laws that are extraterritorial in nature such as sanctions. Kobre & Kim's Jian Wu, who has extensive experience in compliance and government enforcement defense across the Asia Pacific region, will moderate a panel on these issues during an American Bar Association China Committee networking event at 5:30 pm Shanghai time, September 24, 2021.

During the event, titled "The Legal and Compliance Challenges of Cross-Border Trade," Mr. Wu, who is also vice chair of the ABA China Committee, will be joined by Tim Klatte of Grant Thornton, Xiaozhou Guo of Celanese, Yvonne He of IMAX China and Mengyun Qiu of AllBright Law Offices.

The panel will take place at Grant Thornton's Shanghai office at 45th Floor, Raffles City 268 Xizang Middle Road, Shanghai. The fee is free for ABA members and 100 RMB for non-members. Please contact Ms. Gina Yan (gina.yan@cn.gt.com or (21) 2322-0212) to RSVP.
