Jian Wu Discusses Law Firm Innovation and Prospects in China During Intelligeast Panel

March 26, 2024

While many international law firms are considering scaling back their Chinese presence, others see continuing room for innovation and opportunities in the country. Kobre & Kim's Regional Managing Director for Asia Pacific, Jian Wu, discusses the innovating and building of law firms at Intelligeast's Spring Summit in Shanghai during a panel at 2:30 pm local time on March 27, 2024.

During the panel on "Dialogue with outstanding local and international law firms," Mr. Wu will discuss how Kobre & Kim innovates, from its products to its use of technology and talent, as well as what the prospects are for international law firms in China.
