

News

Many of our engagements involve matters in which our clients face significant public attention. The following is a list of news stories about the firm, our clients, cases and the results we have achieved.

Jian Wu Explores Legal and Economic Landscape Between U.S. and China in AABANY Roundtable

May 17, 2023

The legal and economic landscape between the United States and China is becoming increasingly complicated, and businesses must be attuned to new challenges and opportunities to stay ahead. Kobre & Kim's Regional Managing Director of Asia Pacific Jian Wu explores the latest developments during a roundtable hosted by the Asian American Bar Association of New York (AABANY) Asia Practice Committee and Alternative Dispute Resolution Committee in New York at 6:00 pm on May 19, 2023.

The roundtable will explore topics such as cross-border investments, dispute resolution, the impact of China's lift of its zero-COVID policy on business opportunities as well as opportunities across the region.

The session will take place at JAMS New York in the New York Times Building. Please click here to register.