

News

Many of our engagements involve matters in which our clients face significant public attention. The following is a list of news stories about the firm, our clients, cases and the results we have achieved.

John Han Answers Questions on High-Value International Recovery During OffshoreAlert Bangkok 2024

March 4, 2024

The international landscape for high-value fraud recovery is constantly changing. Kobre & Kim's John Han, who focuses on the monetization of claims on behalf of investors and multinational companies, joined other leading international fraud and value recovery practitioners to discuss during the OffshoreAlert Bangkok 2024 conference on a panel on February 29, 2024.

The informal and interactive session, titled "High-Value International Recovery: Ask Me Anything (Part Two)," also included Danny Ong of Setia Law, Gwynn Hopkins of Perun Consultants and Marjolein van den Bosch-Broeren of Omni Bridgeway.

Click here to learn more about the event.