

News

Many of our engagements involve matters in which our clients face significant public attention. The following is a list of news stories about the firm, our clients, cases and the results we have achieved.

John Han to Speak at BNY's Private Credit Forum in Hong Kong

June 17, 2025

Kobre & Kim's John Han will speak at From Collateral to Capital: The Private Credit Opportunity, a private credit forum hosted by BNY in Hong Kong on June 26, 2025. He will join the panel "Asset-based Finance: The Backbone of Private Credit" at 3:00 PM, sharing insights on monetizing distressed high-value loans and personal guarantees when lenders are under-secured and no work out is possible.

This closed-door event will bring together leading investors, originators, and industry thought leaders for high-impact conversations on private credit's evolution, core and emerging strategies, and exit approaches in distressed situations.