

News

Many of our engagements involve matters in which our clients face significant public attention. The following is a list of news stories about the firm, our clients, cases and the results we have achieved.

Kiran Unni Discusses Litigation Privilege in Corporate Fraud Investigations with C5

March 7, 2019

Kobre & Kim attorney Kiran Unni, who has extensive experience in matters involving fraud and anti-corruption, will discuss the changing scope of litigation privilege in corporate investigations at C5's 13th Fraud, Asset Tracing and Recovery conference on March 14 in Geneva, Switzerland. Unni's panel, entitled "Litigation Privilege and Disclosure in Corporate Fraud Investigations," will offer insight into a range of topics, including challenging a claim to privilege, managing aggressive redactions and determining the circumstances for disclosure of controversial documents.