Kobre & Kim Hosts China's iCourt Delegation in New York

October 5, 2026

Kobre & Kim welcomed a delegation of lawyers from leading Chinese law firms to its New York office on October 2 as part of iCourt's Law Firm Management and Leadership Program.

Led by Daniel Saval and Jeremy Bressman, the visit formed part of iCourt's ongoing efforts to facilitate the exchange of management experience and strengthen connections between Chinese and international law firms. Participants exchanged perspectives on managing and growing legal practices across jurisdictions and serving clients in a rapidly evolving market.

iCourt's Law Firm Management and Leadership Program brings together lawyers from Chinese and international law firms to share management experience and strengthen professional connections across the legal industry.
