

News

Many of our engagements involve matters in which our clients face significant public attention. The following is a list of news stories about the firm, our clients, cases and the results we have achieved.

Kobre & Kim Hosts Virtual Panels on Ultra High Net Worth Litigation

April 28, 2020

Starting on May 5th, and through May 12th, Kobre & Kim will host a series of virtual panel sessions entitled, “Global Litigation and Ultra High Net Worth Individuals: Unique Challenges and Strategic Opportunities.” Hosted by a diverse set of panelists from a variety of jurisdictions and specialties, the sessions will take an in-depth look into offensive and defensive measures that can be deployed to defend or attack an Ultra High Net Worth Individual’s assets, liberty and reputation.

Click here to find out more about the series and register your attendance .