

News

Many of our engagements involve matters in which our clients face significant public attention. The following is a list of news stories about the firm, our clients, cases and the results we have achieved.

Kobre & Kim to Host New York Arbitration Week Discussion on Enforcing Against Sovereigns and State-Owned Enterprises

October 19, 2026

As part of New York Arbitration Week (NYAW) 2026, Kobre & Kim will host "From Award to Recovery: Enforcing Against Sovereigns and State-Owned Enterprises in a Changing World" on November 18, 2026, at 2:30-4 pm ET.

Aligned with the NYAW 2026 theme, "Arbitration in a Changing World: The Road Ahead," the interactive panel will explore the future of arbitral recovery against sovereigns and state-owned enterprises, including enforcement trends, sovereign counter-offenses, and considerations for maximizing recovery prospects before, during and after arbitration. The discussion will examine how practitioners, clients and funders are adapting strategies as the path from award to recovery becomes more contested and global.

Register for the event here.