

News

Many of our engagements involve matters in which our clients face significant public attention. The following is a list of news stories about the firm, our clients, cases and the results we have achieved.

Lara Levinson Joins Rahman Ravelli and ThoughtLeaders4 Webinar “Art, crime and finance: the full picture”

August 1, 2023

The art market faces a unique set of crime risks and a variety of approaches to address those risks. Kobre & Kim’s Lara Levinson, who focuses on complex civil litigation, regulatory and internal investigations, and asset forfeiture and recovery matters, joins a Rahman Ravelli and ThoughtLeaders4 webinar examining these risks faced by the art world at 11:00 am UK time on Monday, September 4.

The webinar will address a variety of issues, including money laundering, theft, counterfeiting, misrepresentation, insurance fraud, sanctions and the restitution of looted art assets. Panelists will also discuss United States and United Kingdom approaches to regulation and prosecution.

Ms. Levinson will be joined by Dr. Angelika Hellweger of Rahman Ravelli and Helena Bowyer of Ankura. More speakers are to be announced.

Click here to register.