

News

Many of our engagements involve matters in which our clients face significant public attention. The following is a list of news stories about the firm, our clients, cases and the results we have achieved.

Leif Simonson Discusses the Current State of International Litigation at iLaw 2019

February 20, 2019

Kobre & Kim attorney Leif Simonson will join a panel of fellow experts to discuss trending cases, topics and recent court decisions involving international litigation at the iLaw 2019 ILS Global Forum on International Law on February 22nd in Miami, Florida. The panel, entitled “Hot Topics in International Litigation,” will explore significant recent legal decisions, including developments in case law concerning Section 1782’s residential requirements, and their impact on international litigation.