

News

Many of our engagements involve matters in which our clients face significant public attention. The following is a list of news stories about the firm, our clients, cases and the results we have achieved.

Marcus Green Discusses Monetizing Arbitration Awards in International Energy Disputes at the Global Forum on Dispute Resolution for Oil & Gas Industry

May 18, 2015

Kobre & Kim lawyer Marcus Green presented at the Global Forum on Dispute Resolution for Oil & Gas Industry in Amsterdam on May 18. The presentation, titled “Monetizing Arbitration Awards in International Energy Disputes,” addressed risk-adjusted valuation, asset tracing and disclosure in relation to international energy counterparties, common tactics of recalcitrant award debtors, awards rendered against the U.S. in favor of foreign investors, availability of interim or conservatory measures, and selling claims and awards in the distressed debt markets.

When: May 18, 2015

Where: Movenpick Hotel, Amsterdam, The Netherlands

Click here for more information.