Marcus Green Weighs the “End Game” Challenges within Arbitration Award Enforcement

September 20, 2018

Marcus Green will be leading a panel discussion featuring arbitration award creditors and debtors alike on the challenges in the “end game” of arbitration enforcement at the Second Annual Enforcement of Arbitration Awards in Amsterdam on Friday, September 21. The panel titled “End Game” will include numerous strategies from how to close the deal to how asset protection can be leveraged to shield against enforcement. Best practices from both the award creditor and debtor’s perspectives will be provided and examined throughout the discussion.
