

News

Many of our engagements involve matters in which our clients face significant public attention. The following is a list of news stories about the firm, our clients, cases and the results we have achieved.

Martin De Luca Discusses the FCPA and Internal Investigations in Sao Paulo

December 3, 2018

Kobre & Kim attorney Martin De Luca will join a panel of fellow experts to discuss challenges and specific cases pertaining to internal investigations – both in Brazil and around the world – at WFaria’s 3rd Compliance and Internal Investigations conference in Sao Paulo, Brazil on December 4th. Martin will bring an international perspective to the event, where he will discuss specific cases that reflect the Department of Justice’s current approach to internal investigations, specifically examining the latest trends of how the Department is building cases under the Foreign Corrupt Practices Act.