KOBRE & KIM | DISPUTES AND INVESTIGATIONS

News

Many of our engagements involve matters in which our clients face significant public attention. The following is a list of news stories about the firm, our clients, cases and the results we have achieved.

Martin De Luca Explores Government Monitorships at Fenalaw 2018

October 22, 2018

Martin De Luca will discuss government monitorships at the Fenalaw 2018 conference on October 24-26 in São Paulo, Brazil. Mr. De Luca's panel entitled “Government Monitorships,” will highlight the development of monitorships in the United States, responsibilities of a monitor and common challenges encountered during an investigation. Fenalaw is the largest conference for legal market in Latin America, providing key insights to lawyers, businesses, and industry professionals.

Attorney Advertising. Prior results do not guarantee a similar outcome.