

News

Many of our engagements involve matters in which our clients face significant public attention. The following is a list of news stories about the firm, our clients, cases and the results we have achieved.

Michael Kim Examines Enforcement and Litigation Trends in Derivatives and Futures Law

January 19, 2017

Michael Kim discussed the latest enforcement and litigation developments on a panel titled “Enforcement and Litigation Developments” at the ABA Derivatives and Futures Law Committee Meeting on January 19. Mr. Kim addressed recent developments in spoofing litigation, issues associated with cross-market and cross-commodity trading liability, and the U.S. Commodity Futures Trading Commission’s push to modify the elements of attempted manipulation.