

News

Many of our engagements involve matters in which our clients face significant public attention. The following is a list of news stories about the firm, our clients, cases and the results we have achieved.

Michael Ng Discusses Trade Secrets Litigation and Cross-Border Investigations at Sedona Conference

December 6, 2017

Michael Ng will examine strategies for cross-border trade secrets litigation and related internal investigations on December 8 at the Inaugural Sedona Conference on Developing Best Practices for Trade Secret Issues in Scottsdale, Arizona. During the panel, titled “Cross-border trade secret litigation,” Mr. Ng will discuss managing cross-jurisdictional legal requirements and investigative practices, including attorney-client privilege availability, cultural challenges, and data disclosure rules. The panel will also address recent anti-corruption trends and their impact on internal investigations.