Miranda Ching Unpacks Key Lessons for Global Companies on UK Bribery Act

November 17, 2021

Ten years on from the passing of the UK Bribery Act 2010, what are the lessons learned that corporations should take to heart? Kobre & Kim's Miranda Ching, a former UK Serious Fraud Office (SFO) prosecutor, explains during an SAI360 webinar at 3:00 pm London time, December 2, 2021.

The landmark law has set the international benchmark for compliance and altered corporate behavior across the globe. Together with Caroline McMichen and Simon Seitz of SAI360, Ms. Ching will evaluate the success and challenges of the Bribery Act and offer tips to companies on dealing with SFO enforcement and improving their compliance strategies during the panel, "The UK Bribery Act 10 Years On and the Impact on International Compliance."
