

News

Many of our engagements involve matters in which our clients face significant public attention. The following is a list of news stories about the firm, our clients, cases and the results we have achieved.

Paul Hughes and John Han Explore Middle East Insolvency Disputes Trends in Dubai Seminar

November 8, 2022

Dubai is solidifying its role as a hub for resolving contentious insolvency and distressed debt disputes in the Middle East and around the world. Kobre & Kim's Paul Hughes and John Han will examine the recent trends and developments in this area during a seminar hosted by the Restructuring Insolvency and Legal Practitioners Association (RILPA) in Dubai at 8:30 am local time, November 15, 2022.

Together with a panel of speakers, Mr. Hughes and Mr. Han will discuss the distressed debt market in the Middle East, dispute trends across the region, such as looking at high-profile insolvencies and the increasing use of legal finance, as well as developments in contentious insolvency situations.

The panel will also include Richard Clarke of Kroll, Joe Durkin of Burford Capital, Jane Miles of Reed Smith, Nicola Jackson of Clyde & Co., David Standish of Interpath Advisory, Guy Wall of Alvarez & Marsal, Mo Farzadi of PwC Middle East, Tanisha Saxena of HFW, Paul Leggett of Deloitte, Robin Hickman of Addleshaw Goddard, Bruno Navarro of Ipso Facto, Majed Alrasheed of Majed Alrasheed Law Firm and Ben Hughes of Kroll. The seminar is sponsored by Kobre & Kim, Burford Capital and Kroll.

Contact info@ripla.org to register, and click here for more information.