

News

Many of our engagements involve matters in which our clients face significant public attention. The following is a list of news stories about the firm, our clients, cases and the results we have achieved.

Paul Hughes and Nada Oteifi Unpack Middle East Dispute Trends at Dubai Arbitration Week Seminar

November 16, 2021

As more global clients build up interests in the Middle East, their assets and reputation are increasingly exposed to disputes and investigations in the region. Speaking at a session hosted by Litigation Capital Management as part of Dubai Arbitration Week, Kobre & Kim's Paul Hughes and Nada Oteifi unpack the latest developments in disputes across Dubai and the wider Middle East.

During the session, "Disputes Trends Across the Middle East," Mr. Hughes and Ms. Oteifi are joined by Tanisha Saxena of HFW, Keith Hutchison of Clyde & Co, Nick Carnell of Taylor Wessing, Rachel Larkin of Reed Smith, Guy Wall of Alvarez & Marsal, Gordon Moffatt of GMCS and Bruno Navarro of Rothschild & Co. The event takes place at the Ritz-Carlton DIFC at 8:30 am Dubai time, November 17, 2021.

Click here for more information.