Randall Arthur Provides Insight into Monetizing Judgments and the Insolvency Process at the Asset Recovery Asia Conference

June 5, 2018

Hong Kong-based lawyer Randall Arthur will explore direct enforcement of overseas judgments by insolvency practitioners at Asset Recovery Asia taking place on June 5-6 in Singapore.

During the session, “Getting your Money Back Direct Enforcement Against Assets or an Insolvency Process,” Mr. Arthur will discuss the difference between traditional judgment enforcement by a creditor versus enforcement by an insolvency practitioner (including comparative powers, cost considerations and recognition issues). He will also examine the pros and cons on both ways of enforcement to offer practical guidance to lawyers on how to decide the best strategy.
