

News

Many of our engagements involve matters in which our clients face significant public attention. The following is a list of news stories about the firm, our clients, cases and the results we have achieved.

Rebecca Hume and Benjamin Sauter to be among the featured speakers at the Asset Recovery Americas conference in New York

September 24, 2018

Cayman-based litigator, Rebecca Hume, will highlight asset recovery in cases involving divorce or contested probate during the panel “Love, death and bankruptcy.” Ms. Hume’s presentation will review strategic approaches for effective asset tracing and recovery, dealing with the challenges of cross-border recognition and how to work effectively with practitioners in recovery actions.

Benjamin Sauter will discuss fraudulent cryptocurrency schemes, unique challenges that law enforcement and asset recovery specialists face and steps companies can take to retrieve stolen assets cryptocurrencies during the panel titled “Asset Recovery of the Future and the Challenges facing Liquidators.”

Asset Recovery Americas is taking place on September 24th – 25th in New York and includes case studies, panels and presentations by those considered to be leading international civil fraud lawyers and insolvency practitioners from across the globe.