Rebecca Hume Co-Chairs KNect365's Asset Recovery International Conference

February 27, 2019

Kobre & Kim attorney Rebecca Hume, who has extensive expertise in international judgment enforcement and asset tracing, will Co-Chair this year's Asset Recovery International conference in Dublin, Ireland on March 1. Asset Recovery International is an industry event that brings together legal experts experienced in fraud litigation, enforcement and contentious insolvency on an international scale.

In addition to presenting opening and closing remarks as Co-Chair, Ms. Hume will also moderate several panels regarding both onshore and offshore asset recovery litigation, including the panel entitled "Asset Protection Trusts: How to Break Them," in which she will join fellow experts to discuss strategies for recovering assets from asset protection trusts in instances of fraud.
