

News

Many of our engagements involve matters in which our clients face significant public attention. The following is a list of news stories about the firm, our clients, cases and the results we have achieved.

Rebecca Hume Delivers Webinar on Resolving Shareholder Disputes with Financial Poise

March 26, 2019

On March 26th, Kobre & Kim's Rebecca Hume participated in a Webinar panel on Resolving Shareholder Disputes as part of Financial Poise's series on Common Commercial Conflicts 2019. Ms. Hume, who regularly represents clients in high-stakes shareholder disputes including dissenters' rights matters, discussed different types of shareholder disputes and corresponding remedies, including alternative dispute resolution, buy-sell agreement provisions, and share valuation considerations.

For more information – and to listen to a recording of the webinar – click here.