

News

Many of our engagements involve matters in which our clients face significant public attention. The following is a list of news stories about the firm, our clients, cases and the results we have achieved.

Rebecca Hume Explores Cayman Islands Bankruptcy and Litigation at IWIRC Leadership Summit

July 20, 2017

Offshore litigator Rebecca Hume will examine bankruptcy litigation at the July 21 IWIRC Leadership Summit in Grand Cayman. The panel, titled “Demystifying Bankruptcy and Litigation in the Cayman Islands,” will focus on regulation and compliance standards in the region, international cooperation, practical steps to effective examinations, and key considerations for successful asset recovery.

For more information on the summit, please click here.