Robin Baik Shares Inside Perspective on US $108 Million Investment Treaty Arbitration Win at Breakfast Event

August 14, 2023

Unlike many other investment treaty arbitrations, Elliott Associates v Republic of Korea is a case where the parties' submissions are public, providing valuable insight into the international arbitral process. Kobre & Kim's Robin Baik, who led the firm's team in representing Elliott to win their recent US $108 million award against the Korean government, shares his perspectives on the case and investment treaty disputes more broadly during a breakfast event hosted by Three Crowns on Thursday, August 31 in Singapore.

The discussion is moderated by Daphne Hong, the Solicitor-General of the Attorney-General's Chambers of Singapore and the Director-General of its International Affairs Division. Mr. Baik will also be joined on the panel by Constantine Partasides KC of Three Crowns and Beomsu Kim of KL Partners.
