Join Kobre & Kim's Robin Rathmell, Carrie Tendler and Sean Buckley at "The Snowball of HNW Litigation: How HNW Disputes Turn Ugly and Tips for De-Escalation" webinar, co-hosted by Chambers and Partners on Wednesday, March 3 at 1:00 pm GMT.

Moderated by Chambers and Partners' High Net Worth Editor Simon Christian, Mr. Rathmell, Ms. Tendler and Mr. Buckley will discuss the crucial role an adviser can play in identifying when an everyday matter begins to escalate into a dispute or investigation.

In particular, panelists will address how to contain legal issues through deployment of proactive strategies, how to identify imminent contentious cross-border litigation or investigations and how to deploy in-court and out-of-court strategies to protect a client's assets, liberty and reputation.
