

News

Many of our engagements involve matters in which our clients face significant public attention. The following is a list of news stories about the firm, our clients, cases and the results we have achieved.

Robin Rathmell and Polly Wilkins on Managing High-Stakes International Private Client Litigation

April 10, 2020

Kobre & Kim's Robin Rathmell and Polly Wilkins will be hosting a webinar in association with The Private Client Global Elite on Wednesday April 15, 9am EDT / 2pm BST.

In this webinar, titled "Managing High-Stakes International Private Client Litigation," Rathmell and Wilkins will give a broad overview of the current environment of private client litigation. They will examine the range of issues and problems faced by private clients involved in high-stakes litigation surrounding allegations of criminal or civil fraud or other financial impropriety, before looking at practical and lawful approaches to managing these threats to reputation, wealth and liberty.