

News

Many of our engagements involve matters in which our clients face significant public attention. The following is a list of news stories about the firm, our clients, cases and the results we have achieved.

Timothy Haynes to Join Panel on Insolvency Powers in Cross-Border Asset Recovery Cases

February 16, 2021

Kobre & Kim's Timothy Haynes will join a panel on insolvency powers in cross-border asset recovery cases at the Asset Recovery Middle East virtual conference hosted by Informa on February 17, 2021 at 11:20 am Arabian Standard Time.

Mr. Haynes will draw from his relevant experience to focus on the growing recognition of insolvency practitioners that operate between Hong Kong and offshore jurisdictions, particularly Cayman and the British Virgin Islands.

Mr. Haynes will join fellow panelists Joanne Collett of Walkers Global, Fadi Sarkis of Sarkis & Associates and Colin Diss of Grant Thornton in a spotlight presentation to consider the powers held by insolvency practitioners in different jurisdictions that may be used to increase the prospects of recoveries in asset recovery cases.

Kobre & Kim's Kiran Unni and Jeremy Bressman will also be in attendance at this event.

Click here to learn more about the panel.