

News

Many of our engagements involve matters in which our clients face significant public attention. The following is a list of news stories about the firm, our clients, cases and the results we have achieved.

Vasu Muthyala Discusses Corruption Risks of Third-Party Management at Anti-Corruption Compliance Asia Pacific Summit

December 21, 2015

Vasu Muthyala, a member of Kobre & Kim's Government Enforcement Defense and Investigations team in Asia, discussed the corruption risks associated with third-party management in Asia-Pacific countries at the 3rd annual Anti-Corruption Compliance Asia Pacific Summit held in Hong Kong.

During the panel session titled "Third Party Management with High Corruption Risks in Developing APAC Countries," Mr. Muthyala explored in depth a variety of issues, including corruption risks and several tools available to the companies to identify, manage, and contain the risks when problems arise. Leveraging his experience as a former U.S. Department of Justice (DOJ) prosecutor, he also shared his insight into effective defense strategies when faced with U.S. regulatory enforcement actions.