

News

Many of our engagements involve matters in which our clients face significant public attention. The following is a list of news stories about the firm, our clients, cases and the results we have achieved.

Vasu Muthyala Dissects Corruption and Risk in Indo-U.S. Business Relations at the U.S. India Business Council's Annual Legal Services Conference in Delhi and Mumbai

November 17, 2015

Vasu Muthyala, a Hong Kong-based member of Kobre & Kim's Government Enforcement Defense, discussed corruption and risk management in white-collar issues on a panel titled "White Collar Issues in Indo-US Context: A Commercial Approach Toward Risk Management." Mr. Muthyala and the other panelists explored mitigating risk vis-à-vis embezzlement and kickbacks from the private sector, corruption risk and international joint ventures, cultural differences and the impact on corruption, and investigations and enforcement pertaining to white-collar crime in India.