

News

Many of our engagements involve matters in which our clients face significant public attention. The following is a list of news stories about the firm, our clients, cases and the results we have achieved.

Kobre & Kim's Vasu Muthyala to Speak at CFI's Forum on Investigations and Enforcement in APAC

December 2, 2019

Former DOJ prosecutor and SEC enforcement lawyer Vasu Muthyala is traveling to Singapore to speak at Cambridge Forum Inc.'s Forum on Investigations and Enforcement in Asia-Pacific on Wednesday, December 4th.

With his combined residency at Kobre & Kim's Hong Kong office and personal experience in cross-border government investigations and regulatory enforcement matters, Muthyala promises to lend informed insights on issues facing multinational corporations and other relevant entities across the region. The forum will showcase up to 44 preeminent private practice lawyers, general counsel, in-house litigators and financial crime experts from institutions that deal with enforcement matters in APAC.